Philippians 4:8 Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable

We are here at the birth of an astounding career. Thought I found a way Thought I found a way out found But you never go away never go away So I guess I gotta stay now Oh, I hope someday I'll make it out of here Even if it takes all night or a hundred years Need a place to hide, but I can't find one near Wanna feel alive, outside I can't fight my fear Isn't it lovely? Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

The Brady Bunch Lyrics

The story was Kill-Box Road Trip, and I was immediately riveted by this young author's style, characters and dialogue. In distinctive and poetic prose, Patty Templeton presents a world enchanted and real.

Philippians 4:8 Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable

Templeton has the ability to develop characters within your subconscious mind by dropping a fact here and a minor description there as the character dynamically moves through the story. I spent the next few months building the production around their beautiful voices and the piano I'd played while we were writing it.

Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. It is rare that I find an author that grips me like this, but Patty Templeton is the real deal. First--I am lucky to be Mom because I have read other stories by Patty! Who is the Reverend Doctor Enton Blake? All alone Heart made of glass, my mind of stone Tear me to pieces, skin to bone Hello.

The Brady Bunch Lyrics

I don't have a favorite character yet; I am in Chapter 6 due to time constraints but tonite I am reading til done! Templeton, a wickedly wise puppetmaster, plays a light hand over myriad strings.

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is fair, whatever is pure, whatever is acceptable, whatever is commendable, if there is anything of excellence and if there is anything praiseworthy—keep thinking about these things. Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things.
