

Western-educated elites in Kenya, 1900-1963 - the African American factor

Routledge - Trailblazers

Description: -

-

Kenya -- History -- 1895-1963.

Education -- Kenya -- History -- 20th century.

Elite (Social sciences) -- Kenya -- History -- 20th century. Western-educated elites in Kenya, 1900-1963 - the African American factor

-

African studies (Routledge (Firm))

African studies Western-educated elites in Kenya, 1900-1963 - the African American factor

Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. ) and index.

This edition was published in 2006

Filesize: 11.28 MB

Tags: #Trailblazers

Vol. 92, No. 4, Autumn, 2007 of The Journal of African American History on JSTOR

Harper attended North Carolina Central University and Howard University. He also served as the lead editor of Topics in the African Diaspora 2016. In addition, he has created several Public History projects and produced three mini documentaries.

Jim Harper

Harper received the highest teaching award the University of North Carolina Board of Governors recognizes, the UNC Board of Governors Excellence in Teaching Award. He has received several awards for his service to Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. After considerable encouragement from his late brother Moriba McDonald who was a historian with the National Park Service and first the Program Coordinator for the NPS Cultural Diversity Internship Program, George join the Service first working as an Equal Employment Opportunity Specialist and then as Special Assistant to the Deputy Director.

Trailblazers

He also chaired and served as a member of multiple Chapter, District, and International committees to include: International Achievement Week Committee, International Membership Committee, International Scholarship Committee, and International Talent Hunt Committee.

Table of contents for Western

Contents may have variations from the printed book or be incomplete or contain other coding. From these institutions, he earned a B.

Related Books

- Champlain of the St Lawrence
- Widows of Eastwick
- Buya H. Zaini Kunin - sebutir mutiara dari Lubuk Bendahara
- Canadas submariners, 1914-1923
- Ulster Hospital, Belfast.