Therefore it is a sure thing, a good thing, and a gracious thing to will meekly and powerfully to be fastened and joined to our mother, holy Church - that is Christ Jesus.

Julian of Norwich: Revelations of Divine Love (Selections)

And so meaneth He in that He saith: ALL MANNER OF THINGS shall be well. And lastly, in this mystical vision of the oneness of man with God in Christ, man is seen not only as united in himself in the diverse parts of his nature, and as one with his fellow man, but as joined to that which is below him. Then I understood thus: that if a man or woman were under the broad water, if he might have sight of God so as God is with a man continually, he should be safe in body and soul, and take no harm: and overpassing, he should have more solace and comfort than all this world can tell.

Revelations of Divine Love Quotes by Julian of Norwich

For our Substance is whole in each Person of the Trinity, which is one God. In Carrow Abbey, by Walter Rye privately printed, 1889, is given a list of Wills, in which the name of the Lady Julian Lampet frequently occurs as a legatee between the years 1427 Will of Sir John Erpingham and 1478 Will of William Hallys.

The Short Text of Julian of Norwich's Revelations of Divine Love

Nor could this silence in itself be taken as a proof that ascetic practices had not in her view a preparatory function such as has by many of the Mystics been assigned to them during a process of self-training in the earlier stages of the soul's ascent to aptitude for mystical vision.

Julian of Norwich

Thus mightily, wisely, and lovingly was the soul examined in this Vision. She also learns about the importance of being humble and meek. Julian keeps on the way that is natural to her spirit and to all her habits of thought as these may have been directed by reading and conversation: it does not take her towards that Divine Darkness of which some seers have brought report.

Revelations of Divine Love Quotes by Julian of Norwich

The First was mind of His Passion; the Second was bodily sickness in youth, at thirty years of age; the Third was to have of God's gift three wounds.

The Short Text of Julian of Norwich's Revelations of Divine Love

For truly it was not shewed me that God loved me better than the least soul that is in grace; for I am certain that there be many that never had any Shewing nor sight but of the common teaching of Holy Church that love God better than I. I thought that I would that all mine even-Christians had seen as I saw, and then would they all laugh with me.

Revelations of Divine Love: Julian of Norwich

And therefore it is not God's will that we follow the feelings of pain in sorrow and mourning for them, but that we suddenly pass over, and hold us in endless enjoyment. For as the body is clad in the cloth, and the flesh in the skin, and the bones in the flesh, and the heart in the whole, so are we, soul and body, clad in the Goodness of God, and enclosed. So the First Shewing, as the Ground of all the rest, was a large view of this Goodness as the Ground of all Being.
