Clamor

Brer Fox makes a boy out of tar, so when Brer Rabbit shakes hands, he'll get stuck.

The Best Books We Read in 2020

The 'reality' of secondary education for most students and teachers as I perceive it is disheartening: The ideal classroom is a myth for most schools, and thus the ideal ways to practice interpretation are immediately compromised.

French Romantic Poetry

Standing on the auction block beneath smoke-drenched mountains, Nym faces her fifteenth sell. And certainly not as a logic nor as an ontological content -- though Badiou would insist that each one amounts to the same One in terms of an empty formalism, which is why he can talk about each world's structure by invoking any given world.

The Project Gutenberg eBook of Negro Poets and Their Poems, by Robert T. Kerlin.

His long period of productivity covers the history of his people from the decade before Emancipation till the death of Dunbar.
