History of the Los Angeles Rams

In spite of this, the Rams continued to thrive in Southern California.

History of the Los Angeles Rams

Though Allen would enjoy five straight winning seasons and win two divisional titles in his time with the Rams he never won a playoff game with the team, losing in 1967 to 28—7 and in 23—20 to.

Take, for instance, the 1958 Topps Bobby Richardson cards.

Resource

As has become increasingly common with sports franchises, the Rams began to blame much of their misfortune on their stadium situation.

Baseball Card Values: How To Determine Their Worth

In 1957, the Rams set the all-time NFL attendance record that stood until 2006 and broke the 100,000 mark twice during the 1958 campaign. By the time the last series of cards were printed, baseball season was coming to a close and therefore companies were ramping down production in preparation for football season. But please be careful and remember those are only references.
