060 — War Against the Mafia: The Executioner, Book 1 (Mack Bolan)

This is the hero of the seventies: he's hard-hitting, ruthless, and without a trace of sentimentality. Ok on to the review. By that, I don't mean that Bolan himself comes across as confused or morally conflicted.

COL'S CRIMINAL LIBRARY: DON PENDLETON

A previous Mack Bolan series was published by Innovation in 1993. So in that regard, it is actually pretty tame. The bad guys offered his daughter a way to help reimburse her dad's account - not good, especially after dad finds out and tries to terminate his family.

War Against the Mafia book by Don Pendleton

In the previous book, Bolan and squad took on the mob in the Los Angeles area. .

The Executioner (book series)

I enjoyed the book very much and enjoy Don Pendleton's writing style.
