10 Most Popular Poems by Maya Angelou, Famous Poet

In the summer we ate deep-fried Mars Bars at the annual 4-H Festival, where we watched swine-judging and poultry showmanship competitions.

American Conversations

In true Writing Project fashion, each site designed work that best fit their local context and met the needs of their local teachers and communities. The bell rang, and I ran to class. Alone, all alone Nobody, but nobody Can make it out here alone.

Community Poems

Nearly five thousand mistaken followers.

Rural Opportunities to Use Transportation for Economic Success (ROUTES)

Did you feel the tree bark? Now you understand Just why my head's not bowed.
