Years later, Pustkowski would be more careful in his formulation of genre theory capacity, distinguishing mirohlady now no longer a genre in his view from slopielni to which he would tend to award the rank of an object of genre study.

The Fowler Fallacy: Biography, History, and the Genre of Luke

The momentary genre, as I am provisionally calling it, is thus closer to literary historical discourse; it has been treated as a species of literary parole, rather than a systematic form of langue. Together with the relaxation expansion and reformulation of genre rules, we can observe a greater tolerance for invented terminology, and thus for inventive genres, as can be seen in the example of the roman-fleuve, rejected by Skwarczyńska as a type of novelistic genre, but today universally accepted.
