Having A Baby After Infant Loss: The Mix of Grief & Joy

I wanted something I could wear on some days and leave behind on others, and I love that a necklace can be as discreet or as obvious! At Share, they host a memory-making class, where parents, grandparents and siblings can make keepsakes for their baby. If you would like to share a particular section with a relative, friend or an employer, you can. Name the baby, no matter what age of gestation.

Grief and Bereavement Support

These medical advances have led to an increase in the ability to make these diagnoses prenatally, therefore, allowing parents to have the time to prepare for the birth and to make a decision as to the best plan of care for their child. Parents may notice behavioural changes in their other children, or impacts on other family members such as grandparents.

Pregnancy and infant loss: a survey of families' experiences in Ontario Canada

Lisa Hays learned she was pregnant in the fall of 2010, after nine months of trying for their second child. Much of parenting centers on providing and doing for children, even after they have grown up and left home. They also ship boxes to families who have lost a baby.

Pregnancy & Infant Loss Booklist

While this is a normal reaction and must be processed, eventually you must find compassion for yourself and realize that this was not your fault.

Sands Bereavement Support Book

Symbols such as footprints or pictures of the infant may be significant.

Death of An Infant, Child, Grandchild

You may want to tell your story over and over again. Call, send a card, or offer to spend time with them on milestone days.

Perinatal Grief and Loss

What feels good this year may not feel good next year.

Grieving the Death of a Child is often referred to as the ultimate tragedy.

But others may not see you this way. Your body and your emotions need time to recover after pregnancy.
