Pinyin

Zhang is the first senior official who was placed under investigation in Hainan since the Communist Party of China's 19th National Congress in late 2017 and the fourth incumbent provincial level official was sacked for graft since then. Victims of this practice include Chinese citizens who lead peaceful labor protests, attempt to form political parties, exercise their religious beliefs, post articles on the Internet relating to political reform, or petition for redress of their grievances. By the end of the 1910s, the TES became the only Taiwan institution capable of producing films, some of which had been commissioned by various departments of the colonial government.

HOUSE HEARING, 114TH CONGRESS

Unter weitgehender Mitwirkung von Artur Kibat aus dem ungekürzten chinesischen Urtext übersetzt und mit Erläuterungen versehen von Otto Kibat. When such an order comes down, the target official knows that much of the investigation of his or her activities has been completed and enough evidence has been found to make sanction or prosecution likely.
