So it is in my selfe. Thys office apper tayed vnto the Archbilhoppe of Canterbury, but bycaufe he was banished the Realme, the Kyng appoynted the Archbilhoppe of Yorke to doe it, which he ought not to haue done with out licence of the Archebyshop of Canterbury within the precincte of his prouince, VVil. Or if a Work so infinite he spann'd, Jealous I was that some less skilful hand Such as disquiet always what is well, And by ill imitating would excell Might hence presume the whole Creations day To change in Scenes, and show it in a Play.

Of temptation : the nature and povver of it. The danger of entring into it. And the meanes of preventing the danger. With a resolution of sundry cases thereunto belonging (eBook, 1658) [vivchar.tom.ru]

And adde to these retired Leasure, That in trim Gardens takes his pleasure; 50 But first, and chieftest, with thee bring, Him that yon soars on golden wing, Guiding the fiery-wheeled throne, The Cherub Contemplation, And the mute Silence hist along, 'Less Philomel will daign a Song. In her sweetest, saddest plight, Smoothing the rugged brow of night, While Cynthia checks her Dragon yoke, Gently o're th'accustom'd Oke; 60 Sweet Bird that shunn'st the noise of folly Most musical! Then past he to a flowry Mountain green, Which once smelt sweet, now stinks as odiously; This was that gift if you the truth will have That Constantine to good Sylvestro gave.

Ours is the only Church so reformed, both as to discipline and doctrine, and her mind could be easily seen from the very words ipsissima verba of the Church herself.

[TCP] A case of conscience concerning ministers meddling with state matters in or out of their sermons resolved more satisfactorily then heretofore. Wherein amongst other particulars, these matters are insisted upon, and cleared. 1 How all controversies and debates among Christians ought to be handled regularly, and conscionably to edification by those that meddle therewith. 2 What the proper employments are of Christian magistrates, and Gospel

He carried them to Rio del Oro, and received from the Moors, in exchange, ten blacks and a quantity of gold dust, with which he returned to Lisbon. In this sense He willed and intended the obedience and salvation of the angels who apostatised, inasmuch as he furnished them with gifts, fit in themselves and suitable, to perform obedience, and obtain salvation. A well grounded zeal for the rights of America as is sufficient to inspire every American breast with the love of a righteous cause.
