Hate Crimes Timeline

The second reason is arguably more impactful: If the community does not trust law enforcement to help, individuals will not report the crime at all. Non-emergencies should be reported to the local precinct. Ask them to respond to hate crimes immediately when they happen and to promote prevention and awareness.

Hate Crimes

The FBI says local law enforcement agencies reported 5,479 hate crime incidents in 2014. HRC asks the White House to focus also on how law enforcement officials are trained to investigate and prosecute bias crimes.
