Inevitably Postmodern: The Case of Maus by Art Spiegelman in: Cultural Excavation and Formal Expression in the Graphic Novel

Try it on beforehand to make sure that everything still fits and that you have all the accessories you need. The questions focus on qualifications, rather than cultural fit.

Postmodern Interviewing

Methods of recording information in oral history include audiotapes, videotapes, and the transcriptions of structured interviews.

Postmodern Interviewing

Offer to provide additional information if they need it.

Unstructured Interviews

According to Kirin Narayan and Kenneth M.

Unstructured Interviews: Definition + [Question Examples]

Usually, the greater the status difference between the interviewer and the respondent, the less likely respondents are to express their true feelings. They also allow the interviewer to show more sympathy if required than with the colder more mechanical quantitative methods.
