BWW Review: THE TWO GENTLEMEN OF VERONA at Shakespeare By The Bow

A twisted romantic comedy is the perfect way to spend an evening out in the heat. One of the dominant theories as regards the value of Two Gentlemen is that thematically, it represents a 'trial run' of sorts, in which Shakespeare deals briefly with themes which he would examine in more detail in later works. Traditional dance The 1970 The Two Gentlemen of Verona programme included this ground plan, based on 16th century dance forms.
