Symphony No. 9 in D minor, Op. 125 Choral Composed by Ludwig van Beethoven 841886011229

At the time, it was common for audiences to applaud between movements. The third movement changes to celestial rest and serenity, and is among the noblest, purest, and most grandly beautiful hymns of joy the great master has written.

By this time, Beethoven was feeling both tired and depressed, largely due to what had become his total deafness.

Beethoven, Ludwig

The symphony was the first example of a major composer using voices in a symphony thus making it a choral symphony. He was mostly inspired by the natural course of nature, and liked to write songs describing nature.
