Tibetans in Exile, 1959

The value of Tibet Autonomous Region TAR mineral resources is approximately double the 2001 to 2010 subsidies the central government provided to the TAR, based on official reports. Radio and television broadcast journalists must pass a government-sponsored exam that tests them on basic knowledge of Marxist views of news and Communist Party principles. While such standards permit states in limited circumstances to restrict expression to protect interests such as national security and public order, Chinese restrictions covered a much broader range of activity, including peaceful expression critical of the Communist Party.

2011 Annual Report

Chinese law prohibits certain types of official behavior in the implementation of population planning policies.

THE NEXT TEN YEARS IN SPACE

Under the PRC Criminal Law, employers and supervisors face prison sentences of up to seven years for forcing children to work under conditions of extreme danger. Support organizations that can provide technical assistance in monitoring compliance with labor laws and in bringing suits challenging discriminatory practices, as provided for under Article 62 of the PRC Employment Promotion Law. Collusion between mine operators and local government officials reportedly remains widespread.
