Makaa'id al

He attained his religious education in Hyderabad Deccan, India, under prominent scholars. Al-Baghawi had divided his work into two sections. His commentary on the Mishkat is brief.

Makaa'id al

These are then followed by other books which deal with business transactions, trusteeship and with the conditions of employment and other related legal matters in general. The extent of its popularity and value can be estimated by the large number of commentaries and translations that have appeared in due course in various languages. Al-Tabrizi, on the other hand, corrected the discrepancy by re-classifying these Ahadith and gave reasons for the same.

Ighathatul Lahfan Min Masayid Al Shaytan:Ibn Qayyim (D/I Jawziia

His work entitled The Sayings of Hazrat Muhammad was published in Calcutta, India in 1918. It is, in effect, a new work based on Mishkat al-Masabih. In his commentary on the Mishkat he quotes extensively from the other commentators.

MISHKAT AL

It was published in Madras, India in 1923. At that time Damascus was a centre of literature and thought.

Ighathatul Lahfan Min Masayid Al Shaytan:Ibn Qayyim (D/I Jawziia

Copies of the handwritten manuscripts of this commentary are available in Pir Jhandu Muhibb Allah Shah Library in Sind, Pakistan and in the University of the Punjab Library, Lahore, Pakistan. There were some scholars, for example A.

Ighathatul Lahfan Min Masayid Al Shaytan:Ibn Qayyim (D/I Jawziia

Many schools were located there and he studied and graduated under the protection, direction and sponsorship of his father. Thirdly, at certain places the commentaries on the Ahadith are given in the midst of their translations, thus causing much confusion between the translation of the text and the commentary.
