The Starving Artist's Survival Guide

I suppose you could try telling them this, but I have the sneaky-snake suspicion that it would be like telling a toddler not to lick plywood. Marianne Taylor is a writer and editor, with a lifelong interest in science and nature.

This part is over with now. Get prepared for what comes next.

The Starving Artist's Survival Guide

First lesson learned today: Revolving doors don't stop. If we didn't bring you your food, drink, and were total douches, then we didn't earn that tip. While most of us really do like you, and find you nice to talk with, it's our job.

The Starving Artist's Survival Guide

Yes, our loving parents, who have only ever meant the best for us, told us bold-faced lies. .
