Guide to Parliamentary Work: an updated tool for civil servants

Government Publications Sectional List No. JOURNALS The Journals present the official account of the proceedings of Parliament, including the records of motions passed, suspended, amended or withdrawn; the record of papers laid before each House; and lists of members appointed to committees, etc. It was decided next to compile a list of potential subject-groups, each to be self-contained, to eliminate cross-referencing as far as possible, and to carefully structure each subject-group.

Parliamentary papers

Some ask more than others, but they are a crucial technique for eliciting information from the Government. For instance, the question of how decisions are made for embryo disposition may involve sampling within the patient group as well as from scientists, clinicians, counsellors and clinic administrators.
