Forging the Nation

In Australia camping is a family pastime, and every weekend millions of families are out in nature doing this. The more I got to know Kev, the more I realised just how knowledgeable and inspirational he is with regard to Aussie bushcraft.

Kev the Australian Bushman

Joliffe set himself the task of preserving much of Australia's rural heritage by producing sketches and paintings of such structures. The book contains a series of illustrated articles showing the reader how to make do with natural resources or whatever is at hand and explains how: to make furniture and fishing nets; cool or heat rooms; make toys and musical instruments; build huts; make and repair horse gear; plait and work in leather; splice rope and tie knots; and make camping and cooking equipment. This has been known to kill within 15 minutes.

Forging the Nation

Do your research without the rose-coloured glasses.

Wilderness survival skills: how to thrive in the bush

The San Today Today, it is estimated that there are around 100,000 San still living in Southern Africa. The Italian is far more energetic, and tackles dozens of neglected farming tasks, becoming in effect the manager.

Bush carpentry

Our New Selection; Sandy's Selection; Back at Our Selection.

Rams Skull Press

People have always said that when I ring, they know the sound of my voice. At its essence, survival is not dying in the outdoors. To skin said critter and peg the skin to dry requires skill.
