Magnus (TV Episode 1955)

Manufactured electric trucks as the Ideal Electric Car Co. Old Reliable's Model B is as good an example as any of an average truck for its time. In its day, the Old Reliable was a formidable competitor for the horse-drawn dray.

Ep. 25: Petals to the Metal

Without them the firemen would never be able to move the gigantic steam pumper. Railroads were the dominant form of transportation and there was no national highway system.

Magnus (TV Episode 1955)

While Magnus has been replaced by advancing technology, he still wants to do what he has been trained for. Hodgson Clark was shot and killed instantly as he climbed up on a wagon wheel to get a gun from the wagon. On the trail west he brought with him his mother, his 25-year-old sister Grace, his 17-year-old brother, Hodgson, another brother named Charlie, and another married sister with her family.

RARE BIRDS

Diamond T Motor Car Co. Interesting story of days gone by! We also stock some novelty books and children's reference books. So local markets for trucks developed in the cities.
