Goldy Hyder on Foreign Direct Investment in Canada

In recent years, investment counsellors have been added to a number of key posts, but their main focus has been on promoting foreign investment in Canada. The government cited national security reasons for the decision but did not provide further details. The rule of law is strong and ethical business practices are de rigueur, creating a relatively level playing field for entrepreneurs of all stripes.

Foreign Investment

We see increased trade flows and investment as critical factors to recovery. As a result, in many cases, an investment which may be expected to raise national security concerns requires only the filing of a Notification within 30 days after closing, or, such as in the case of a minority investment, may not require any Notification at all. Take China, where a new inheritance tax will soon come into effect, prompting many investors to consider repositioning their wealth outside of the country.
