What is evolution?

Also, some lives are undertaken for reasons other than the specific intent to develop.

Should public schools teach creationism alongside evolution in science classes?

To begin with, some spices have nothing to do with preservatives. The existence or non-existence of God and free will are philosophical questions, not biological ones.

Debates in evolution: What if the tape of life were replayed? Would humans result?

Lewis' argument from reason is perhaps his most famous argument because of the legendary debate that it inspired. When one is sick, one is sick.

Creation Vs. Evolution

Pro really should have been more careful, and while this debate should be deleted, the vote is clear while it's still up.
