But we must not forget that many did absorb it. The blindness in front of them was annoying, then agonizing, the plane still shimmying, small bounces in the rough air, the pilot using his skills to keep his plane at precisely the attitude of those around him. He knew very little about engines, had never owned a car, never earned that particular badge that inspired pride in the mechanics, a cake of grease under the fingernails.

No one had asked if any Germans actually knew what an alligator was, but the flight engineer had come from Louisiana bayou country, and he had made the argument that none of the others could dispute. No Less Than Victory is the crowning achievement in master storyteller Jeff Shaaras soaring World War II trilogy revealing the European wars unforgettable and harrowing final act. After the.

No Less Than Victory

You let Fritz blow the hell out of your pack. His friends spoke of the adventure of it all, that if any of them missed it, or worse, avoided it, they would be called shirkers, traitors to the king.
