Pastoral Plan for Evangelization

Technology has produced tools to enhance and prolong life; as a result, patients are now given choices that did not exist 10 years ago. New drugs, procedures, technologies—even legislation—have had an impact on the chaplain's role.

Evangelization & Scripture: The Pastoral Prerequisites for Mass

The ongoing ethical training of chaplains has become imperative if they are to effectively support a patient's or a family's journey.

Synod notebook: Catechists and 'pastoral conversion'

This refers to the ongoing catechesis with children, youth and adults which leads them to mature faith and makes evangelizers of those who have been evangelized. Finding meaning in these life changes can enhance the patient's quality of life.

As a result of these efforts, St Thomas Syro-Malabar was erected for the Syro-Malabar migrants in USA and Canada, chaplains were appointed for the pastoral care of the Syro-Malabar migrants by the Latin prelates in many places and several Syro-Malabar parishes were established in Delhi, Bangalore, Chennai and Kolkata. Do I think that a chaplain should never share their faith with another? In addition, chaplains, as members of the interdisciplinary team and employees of the health care facility, have access to patients and their medical charts. Parish Council has focused their activities around the Diocesan Plan.

Some experience a gradual growth over many years. Edith Stein Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross Edith Stein Virgin and Martyr Edith Stein, born in 1891 in Breslau, Poland, was the youngest child of a large Jewish family.

Evangelization & Scripture: The Pastoral Prerequisites for Mass

Where is the line between proselytizing and sharing your faith? The term arose 18 times during the floor speeches, and surfaced again in the working group reports. Based on this survey and the General Assembly held in November 2014, the Diocesan Chancery Staff, the Presbyteral Council, the Diocesan Pastoral Council and other representative bodies, goals, objectives and actions were proposed for the Diocese of Youngstown.
