We Love Oman: A safe home for sea turtles

Aref and his mother were getting ready to join his father in Michigan. However there could be days in low season when you don't see any.

Oman Turtle Watching

Aref, a young Omani boy, is not looking forward to his three-year stay in Michigan while his parents pursue doctoral degrees. Oman is one of the few countries where frankincense trees are grown naturally especially in the southern part of the country.

Sea Turtles

They visit a desert camp, turtle hatching beach, go fishing, and have new adventures together. Turtle of Oman is a book about a young man named Aref whose family is moving.

Destination Reports Environment Society of Oman marks World Turtle Day

Every year, over 20,000 female green turtles — an endangered species — plod up the beach here to dig deep trenches with their rear flippers into the soft sand and deposit their eggs. Since turtles are extremely sensitive to and frightened by light, flash photography is strictly prohibited when taking photos. The best time to see turtles nesting is between April and August.

TWO DAYS TURTLE BEACH & WADI SHAB TRIP

In order to ensure the protection of the turtles, a visitor pass must be obtained, which is available directly at the entrance to the respective beaches. Tourists planning on can get from Muscat to Ras Al Jinz turtle reserve in around 3 hours and 50 minutes by car. It is the perfect venue to indulge in camel riding, quad biking, dune-bashing and much more.

The top 10 things to do in Oman, Oman

Eventually, he realizes that, in Oman, he is used to meeting and accepting Americans who are far from home and it has never once prevented him from welcoming them and embracing them.

Protecting our turtles from extinction

A map in the museum showed protected turtle nesting beaches all the way down the east coast of Oman. Ras Al Jinz Turtle Reserve Oman : for many travelers this one of the highlights of a trip to the Sultanate.
