He could excel in tiger-slaying — -1835 DOUGLAS GRAHAM. The senior officer on the spot was almost the senior captain in the army: none above him could be sent with the detached companies of which the force would be composed ; whereas he himself, from his junior position in the army, would, if in 124 JAMES OUTRAM 1835- command, be the cause of separating captains from their companies, to the detriment of the service.

The result of his death was a complete wreck of his fortunes, and both anxiety and poverty to his SEimily. But we must not now confine ourselves, either ethno- logically or geogaphically, to any one particular division of the race, though the strict range of biographical narrative be limited to the inhabitants of one British Indian collec- torate and its immediate neighbourhood.

PAGE The Outrara Family — Mr. He shuf- fled and evaded, argued, objected, threatened, but did not proceed to violence.

James Outram (mountaineer)

When he had descended from the Grhats to the village of Gabrai, after a march of eighteen miles effected on the first day, the jangal was found so thick on all sides that, even had he known the localities reached, it would have been no easy task to open communications -with his detached officers. Whatever might have been the result of his military instruction, it would have been difficult, within the confined limits of Addiscombe, to measure the full value of James Outram, who had a part to play among people and nations of the outer world.

Maddock, on available military resources — THE FIRST VOLUME. Early in the new year Outram had reported to the collector of Khandesh that the time had arrived when the experiment might be made of opening a school for the children of his Bhil soldiers. I foresee, please a kind Providence, a career before you which will give full scope for the display of all those eminent qualities with which you are endowed.
