Mary Howe (Composer, Arranger)

Howe did not devote serious attention to writing poetry until she turned 30. This practice still exists today, but in 1882, it was all the rage. Their stories corroborated the events described in local newspapers in the Newcastle and Damariscotta area at the time.

Women of Note

She also had lessons with Boulanger.

Women of Note

Schwärmend Rapturously : Tempo di valse comodo. In addition, selected VOA series are being cataloged in the Library's online catalog where they are searchable by program titles, performers, genres, and composers. Her compositions for orchestra include Stars 1927 , Sand 1928 , Rock 1954 , the suite Potomac River 1940 , Agreeable Overture 1948 , American Piece 1933 and Castellana 1930.

Mary Howe: Stars, Sand, Castellana, Etc / Strickla ...

She toured in a two-piano team with Anne Hull from 1917 - 1935 and studied with Nadia Boulanger in 1933. The entire Roy Lichtenstein catalogue raisonné will be published online; a special print publication will follow.
