Reflections on Saint Joseph in St. John Paul II's Redemptoris Custos

When I would insist on sight, rather than faith, let me suddenly sense a sweet scent that can only be your Holy Presence. The mystic way of the heart is thus the contemplative path of practicing devoted attentiveness and responsiveness to this Heart within all hearts. From there he moves on to stock characters of occult speculation such as the adventurers the Comte de St.

Silence and Mysticism (Episode 16)

The action is set in front of the house — the church of the bourgeoisie.
