The Ladies Flower

We found this book important for the readers who want to know more about our old treasure so we brought it back to the shelves. The work occasionally exhibits some paint smudging from the nature of the printing and coloring process.

Fritillary

Illustrations, Index, if any, are included in black and white. NO changes have been made to the original text. Reprinted in 2018 with the help of original edition published long back 1844.

(#34) Loudon, Jane Webb

Contemporary one-half green morocco leather by George Bayntun over pale green cloth set off by gilt lines, spine with five raised bands, each band is set off by gilt panel lines, lettered in gilt in two compartments and with gilt ornaments in the other four compartments, top page edge in gilt, original marbled endpapers, 4to 11. We expect that you will understand our compulsion in these books. The addition of hand-tinting brought about unusual and subtle effects.

(#34) Loudon, Jane Webb

As these are old books, we processed each page manually and make them readable but in some cases some pages are blur or missing or black spots. The Ladies' Flower-Garden of Ornamental Annuals 1840 , the first in a much-reprinted series of informative illustrated books, was followed by others about bulbs, greenhouse plants, and perennials.
