International Law Commission

First, it is possible that such enforcement takes place in international including regional courts: such as the human rights tribunals or quasi-judicial bodies dealing with state responsibility or international criminal tribunals dealing with the penal responsibility of individuals. In so doing, we re-examine the relationship between jurisdictional rules and rules of immunity and suggest that rules conferring extra-territorial jurisdiction may of themselves displace prior immunity rules. Some have doubted whether the immunity ratione materiae applicable to former diplomats is of the same nature as the general immunity applicable to other official acts of other state officials: see, e.

Immunities of State Officials, International Crimes, and Foreign Domestic Courts

If the Commission determines after such investigation that there is not reasonable cause to believe that the charge is true, it shall dismiss the charge and promptly notify the person claiming to be aggrieved and the respondent of its action. Article 25 Cooperation with other organizations 1. See Cassese, supra note 15, at 304; Fox, supra note 1, at 94—97.

World Commission on Environmental Law

A very wide range of officials senior and junior are charged with the conduct of international relations and need to travel in the exercise of their functions.

International Law and Justice

The most basic type of publication is a UN document, which is a document submitted to a UN body for consideration, usually in connection with an item on its agenda. Secondly, the immunity of state officials in foreign courts prevents the circumvention of the immunity of the state through proceedings brought against those who act on behalf of the state.
