Henry James : the middle years, 1882

This young friend, for a representative of the new psychology, was himself easily hypnotised, and if he became abnormally communicative it was only a sign of his real subjection.

Henry James: Complete Stories 1892

He had finished the revision of proof before quitting London, but his subsequent fortnight in bed had passed the sponge over colour. Attempting a six volume biography of Henry James is an ostensibly pretentious endeavor.

Henry James Books

Quite unforgettable to me the art and truth with which the note of this tone was struck in the beautiful prologue and the bygone appearances, a hundred of the outward and visible signs of the author's own young rural and midmost England, made to hold us by their harmony. His novels are a repeated exposure of this wickedness, a reiterated and passionate plea for the fullest freedom of development, unimperiled by reckless and barbarous stupidity.

Story of the Week: The Middle Years

One of the ladies was large and mature; the other had the sparseness of comparative youth and of a social situation possibly inferior.

Henry James bibliography

Was it just too scandalous to take this stance when the biography was written in 1962? We ventured in our flutter to doubt whether we should beguile, we held back with a certain delicacy from this irruption, and if there was a momentary wonderful and beautiful conflict I remember how our yielding struck me as crowned with the finest grace it could possibly have, that of the prodigious privilege of humouring, yes literally humouring so renowned a spirit at a moment when we could really match our judgment with hers.
