Judge Roy Bean Country

Bean then invited Gould and his daughter to visit the saloon as his guests. Roy had scheduled the main event for late afternoon so they all had a couple of hours to fill and they drank their fill at the Jersey Lilly.

The Westerner (1940 film)

As the scenes and the would-be 'colorful' characters flop and repeat themselves, one's interest begins to evaporate. Los Angeles : Pacific States Pub.

Langtry, Texas, and the Famous Jersey Lilly of Judge Roy Bean

Roy Bean: The Law West of Pecos. He hauled freight to and then on to , Mexico.

Judge Roy Bean Country

Bean is sorrowful about losing Maria Elena and rides away. She had decided to take the judge up on his invitation. By the late 1870s Bean was operating a saloon in Beanville and had heard that many construction camps were opening as several railroad companies were working to extend the railroads west.

Judge Roy Bean Country by Jack Skiles, Paperback

Atkinson asked him if he smoked a lot. Progress caught up with Bean two years later when county officials announced a special election for a real justice of the peace.

Roy Bean

When I first heard about Judge Roy Bean I was 16 years old and working at BTSR in Toyavale, TX. Bruno never seemed to get drunk, but the locals, who often did, never stopped trying.
