Collapse of the Soviet Union

The two also discussed nuclear proliferation, specifically with respect to Iran. June 2000: President Clinton Addresses Russian Parliament On June 5, 2000, President Clinton delivered an address in the Russian State Duma before an audience of Russian parliamentarians. That meant that on die whole the number of medium-umge nuclear missiles in the European zone of the USSR was at the moment much smaller than it hrd been ten or even fifteen years before.

Soviet influence on the peace movement

For the first time, parties other than the Communist Party could participate in elections. A new permanent organization emerged from the April 1949 conclave, the World Committee of Partisans for Peace.

When the Cold War Did Not End: The Soviet Peace Offensive of 1953 and the American Response (2000)

Still others are more candidly selfish and object only to the deployment of nuclear weapons near their own village, so to speak—as if being protected is more dangerous than not being protected.

How Cold War Came to a Peaceful End

Since imperialism is by nature aggressive, it will never put an end to its dangerous policies of strength.

Soviet Perspective On The Cold War And American Foreign Policy

SLBMs and heavy' bombers be limited to equal ceilings. As the US became the leader of the world bourgeoisie after the World War II, it became the main enemy for the Soviet Union in post-war period.

As a result, people grew more and more frustrated with his government.

The Soviet program for peaceful uses of nuclear explosions

After achieving victory in the Civil War and repulsing imperialist intervention, the Soviet government carried through far-reaching social and economic transformations, and put an end once and for all to exploitation of man by man, antagonisms between classes, and strife between nationalities. Nobody threatens to come into your country and impose a government of its choosing—as in Afghanistan.

The Soviet program for peaceful uses of nuclear explosions

By early 1947 the whole area except as yet Czechoslovakia was under complete communist control, including the regime set up in by the Soviet authorities.
