

Jewish serials of the world - a supplement to the research bibliography of secondary sources

Greenwood Press - Biography

Description: -

-
White, Patrick, -- 1912- -- Criticism and interpretation.
Jews -- Periodicals -- History and criticism -- Bibliography.
Jewish periodicals -- History and criticism -- Bibliography.Jewish serials of the world - a supplement to the research bibliography of secondary sources

-Jewish serials of the world - a supplement to the research bibliography of secondary sources

Notes: Includes indexes.

This edition was published in 2001

Filesize: 40.42 MB

Tags: #Scholarly #Bibliographies #Available #Online: #Near #East #and #Egypt

Catalog of the Gerald K. Stone Collection of Judaica: A Bibliographical Resource for Canadian Jewish Studies — Academic Studies Press

It includes detailed and somewhat complicated analysis of Talmudic discussions and contains a bibliography of Neusner's extensive writings on Jewish law. Laws stemming from different periods and from different sources are accorded a different status as to their authoritativeness and changeability. D'oraita law is immutable and unchangeable.

Law Research Guides: Jewish Law

Entries include: surveys of major countries: France, Germany, Australia, India, USA, Japan, including sections in each about domestic life, culture, economics, government, resistance, and defense Available as a print book and an ebook at Swarthmore This 3-volume encyclopedia focuses on Jewish life before WWII cutting off in Sept. Collection Development Policies in General The blueprint for building any library collection, whether tangible or virtual, is a collection development policy. Sources and differing opinions are omitted in the Shulchan Aruch but may be referenced from the Bet Yosef.

Sephardim

W45 1989 - This bibliography is extremely helpful, containing over 500 pages of citations of primary sources including compilations of responsa and contemporary treatises. Resources for Learning about the Legal Systems and Publications of Foreign Jurisdictions, International law and International organizations Foreign and international law research guides are invaluable FCIL collection development tools; they are published in a variety of ways — as articles in traditional law or law librarianship journals, as individual articles and guides published on the web in FCIL websites, as individual monographs, or as multi-jurisdictional, multi-volume works. Applies second language acquisition techniques; with illustrations, devotionals, and a website that includes teaching Videos, teaching PowerPoints, visual vocabulary PowerPoints, audio files, etc.

Fifty Years of Space Law— Brill

Index to American women from 54 works of collective biography.

Catalog of the Gerald K. Stone Collection of Judaica: A Bibliographical Resource for Canadian Jewish Studies — Academic Studies Press

Tosefot were compiled from the 11th Century through the 13th Century. Stone has collected books about Canadian Jewry since the early 1980s. A stellar volume in this series that looks at textual and literary matters.

Primary, Secondary, and Tertiary Sources

· Electronic resources: Once e-policy is in place, consider collection of in-scope electronic resources. For purposes of this research guide legal works that function as an actual source of the law itself, even though by definition may be a secondary source of law, will be treated as a primary source of Jewish law.

Sovetish Heymland

This site contains a collection of Jewish newspapers published in various countries, languages, and time periods. The Non-Existent Manuscript: A Study of the Protocols of the Sages of Zion. Nonfiction 001— 099 Bible and Biblical Studies 010 Biblical Archaeology 015 Torah 100-199 Classical Judaica: Halakha and Midrash 101-107 Talmud 135 Jewish Thought 136 Jewish Theological and Theosophical Concepts 172-173 Medieval Jewish Thought 175-183 Modern Jewish Thought 185-197 Folklore 200—299 Jewish Observance and Practice 200-202 Jewish Religion 210-219 Jewish Religious Movements 220-225 Guides to, and Rites of, Jewish Living 235 The Jewish Calendar 236-249 Jewish Holidays, Festivals and Observances 292-294 Christianity, Islam, Buddhism 300—399 Jewish Education 307.

Related Books

- Manejo florestal nas várzeas - oportunidades e desafios
- Home baking
- Practical guide to SEC proxy and compensation rules
- Lake Huron beginning-of-month water levels and monthly rates of change of storage
- Morale de Descartes