Fordyce's Moral Philosophy

I have been a fan of the Fordyce Letter and the recruiting industry for a long time now. In March 1851 he embarked with his regiment for the Cape of Good Hope, where, after months of severe and harassing warfare against the Kaffirs and rebel Hottentots, he fell at the head of his gallant Highlanders in the prime of his manhood. Dissertation on simple Fever, or on Fever consisting of one Paroxysm only.
