The Historical Society: College football has changed over time. And it hasn't.

In 2012, NIU became the first BCS Buster with a regular-season loss.

The six conferences which met that standard were the AQ conferences.

The Page 99 Test: Michael Oriard's

If there were still not enough teams, the pool for potential at-larges continued to increase by four teams until enough teams were available. What, for Travis, began as simply a project focused on giving the public a glimpse into a season riding along with the Volunteers became a bit more interesting when 2008 became Fulmer's last on the sidelines.

Brand NFL

Generally, two conferences will agree to send teams of a particular standing to a game beforehand.

The Best College Football Programs Of All Time, Ranked

Oriard then traces the subsequent history of the sport as it has tried to grapple with the fundamental contradiction of college football as both extracurricular activity and multi-billion-dollar mass entertainment. Oriard has cemented his position as the definitive interpreter of football in American culture.
