On the Incarnation: A Socratic Dialogue

Discourses against the Arians are three large books written against the Arians between 340 to 346. If you don't have someone like this at your disposal I would think having a text about the ancient Greco-Roman culture that you can easily reference would be handy.

Saint Athanasius on the Reasons for the Incarnation (Part I) — Curating Theology

The witness of Nature, perverted by man's sin, was thus forced back to truth. Thus the Son of the Father came to seek, save, and regenerate. Christ wipes away our ruin, and provides its antidote by his own teaching.

The Glory of the Incarnation

He takes a human body, born of a pure virgin in whose womb he makes human flesh his own, in which to reveal himself, conquer death, and restore life. Now if by the sign of the Cross, and by in , death is trampled down, it must be evident before the tribunal of that it is none other than Christ Himself that has displayed trophies and triumphs over death, and made him lose all his strength.

Work info: On the Incarnation of the Word

Athanasius: That would be useful, as when Joshua fought the second battle with Ai.
