Note: Of the 11,148 examinations, 659 were retests (i.e., an applicant had to retake the examination usually because of an initial inconclusive result). Retest results were proportionately similar to the results for the polygraph reexams.

<sup>1</sup>A failed refers to a test with a significant response and/or no opinion or no opinion-control measure. "No opinion" means that no exam was administered or no viable exam could be selected usually because an applicant did not appear for a scheduled exam. A "no opinion-control measure" represents an attempt by the applicant to cancel the exam.

How to Reapply for a Border Patrol Agent Job

The actual test is composed of an artificial or invented language with a vocabulary list and glossary of grammatical rules available. You know for a fact that every person who is Poverty-stricken is also displeased with their life. This, however, is deliberate for the reason that the job of an agent can be pretty tough and challenging.

Border Patrol Agent Application Process

The second test is the logical reasoning test.
