Suicide: the one truly serious philosophical problem— Camus

Property dualists agree with psychophysical monists that the physical and mental properties of human beings are properties of the same things human bodies or their parts but reject the other thesis of the monists, that the physical properties of a thing necessarily determine its mental properties.

Philosophy: The Problem of the One and the Many

Prerequisites: upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Recent formulations of the Sellarsian dilemma have focused on this mismatch in content between experience and perceptual belief.

Philosophy of education

May be taken for credit up to two times.

Basic Question of Philosophy

If metaevidential beliefs are not necessary for perceptual justification, then these same experiences ought to justify us in those same beliefs.

Christian Philosophy

Philosophy of Science 4 Central problems in philosophy of science, such as the nature of confirmation and explanation, the nature of scientific revolutions and progress, the unity of science, and realism and antirealism. If this background served as evidence, the view in question would no longer be a modest foundationalism.

Philosophy and Logic

If that statement is true, then the person who formulated the special theory of relativity in 1905 was identical with the person who formulated the general theory of relativity in 1915.

The Key Ideas of Western Philosophy

Philosophy of Emotion 4 The nature, function, and value of emotion. But with respect to at least some of them—e.
