The Muscogee Nation

Muscogee Creek Nation is a self-governed Native American tribe located in Okmulgee, Oklahoma.

The Nation

In 1995, Victor Navasky bought the magazine and, in 1996, became publisher. The government side of the tribe is made up of an executive branch, a legislative body and a tribal court system. On March 2, 2020, The Nation again endorsed for.

The Muscogee Nation

The two magazines would later take very different paths: The Nation achieved a higher circulation, and The New Republic moved more to the left. MCN is one of the 5 Civilized Tribes and is the fourth largest tribe in the U.S.

Nation

Advertising accounts for 10% of total revenue for the magazine, while circulation totals 60%.

National Weather Service

The New York Evening Post would later morph into a , the , a left-leaning afternoon tabloid, under owner from 1939 to 1976. It also supported the use of the on.
