The Sword of Capital : YEN! : JAPAN'S NEW FINANCIAL EMPIRE AND ITS THREAT TO AMERICA by Daniel Burstein
(Simon & Schuster: $19.95; 335 pp.; 0

More than 60 years ago, the sudden and palpable fear that the Soviet Union was lurching ahead of us shook America out of a postwar complacency and caused the nation to do what it should have been doing for many years. And our infrastructure of unsafe bridges and potholed roads were draining our productivity.

Opinion

Meanwhile, Mitsubishi bought a substantial interest in the Rockefeller Center, Sony purchased Columbia Pictures, and Nintendo considered buying the Seattle Mariners. Economists on both sides of the Pacific and in Europe recognize the need for an alternative to the dollar standard. Electronics giant Fujitsu had been blocked in its attempt to buy Fairchild Semiconductor, a leading chip maker in Silicon Valley.

Opinion

Americans are blithely unaware of what life would be like in a world without the dollar standard. Please select a donation method.
