The population of New Jersey, by counties, at each of the last five censuses, from 1870 to 1910, inclusive; the increase during the last two decades; the density of the total and the rural population at the census of 1910; and the distribution of the population at the last two censuses according to urban and rural districts, are given in Table I of Chapter 2. One city and the 1 town are coextensive with the pre- cincts in which they are located, while the remaining city comprises 1 precinct and parts of several others. On whether or not local governments compete with each other, see, for example, Brennan and Buchanan, Crowley and Sobel, Stansel, Oates, and Wagner and Weber.
