South of the Border Cruising: The Boating Life in Mexico October 4, 2018 - A new ownership group at Puerto Escondido, a few miles beyond city limits, is angling to make the tranquil and protected marina area a jump-off for competitive and recreational sportfishing in addition to other on-the-water activities. As a result of the state's location on the California Current, rains from the north barely reach the peninsula, thus leaving southern areas drier. Loreto Loreto is the oldest settlement on the Baja Peninsula.

Baja California

Tercera Reunion Internacional sobre Geología de la Península de Baja California, Peninsular Geological Society. Recent History During the Mexican War of Independence 1810-1821 , Baja California Sur was largely isolated from the hostilities because of its remote location. The guide was coordinated closely with San Diego Unified School District and members of the Kumeyaay community.
