It also follows that the people who wrote after the Second World War were not middle-class, not interested in forms the way Hemingway and Dos Passos were, not as sophisticated artistically, and not very often as original. In this sonnet Shelley creates a sense of remoteness, antiquity, and wonder by utilizing Eastern images borrowed from a historic figure and an actual setting in order to reach a high level of awareness.

A Century Of American Realism

Brontë learnt foreign languages, as well as school management. Because it is mere massage, because it helps to maintain man in unfreedom and not to express his spontaneous creation, because of that, it is bad art. In one particular action, the local Irish refused to deal with a landlord's agent whose last name was Boycott, and a new word was thus brought into the language.
