Believing they had been betrayed the men fled and troops sent to confront them arrested 17 men. The name of the county is given where there is reference to an establishment in another county.

Monastic grange

Here a blend of old and new: the earthworks, ruins and reconstructed buildings of chapels, mills and barns; ancient tracks, paths and boundary banks; coppiced woodlands, quarries and early iron workings; alongside farm equipment and concrete cattle sheds, Farrow and Ball renovations and bungalows, and the trappings of the modern horse and pony economy.

Two useful drawings by Edward Blore 1787-1879 show the chapel and domestic buildings from the north west and the chapel and hall from the south west.

Inside Abbots Grange

It's certainly finer in quality than most farmhouses and may well represent the Priors Hunting lodge.
