Stoney Point Park (Los Angeles)

Keep in mind, rock climbing is an extreme sport and must be taken seriously. The slide shows from people like Peter Hacket and one of the Lowe brothers I can't remember which one were inspiring. The sweeping views of Lake Tahoe—not to mention the 300-plus routes, 80 sports routes, and 30 problems—are bound to take climbers' breath away as they traverse Donner Summit.

Hiking and bridle trails take you around the rocks, though most people come here to climb them. This location is best known for its incredible multi-pitch climbs—climbing routes with one or more stops at belay stations, which are situated about 50 to 60 meters apart—since the surface of the wall is taller than your length of rope.
