Review: REVOLUTIONARY SYNDICALISM DEMYTHOLOGIZED on JSTOR

Anarchists in Russia On 3 September 2009, six members of the Serbian IWA section ASI-MUR , including then-IWA General Secretary Ratibor Trivunac, were arrested on suspicion of international terrorism, a charge that was heavily disputed by the international and other anarchist groups.

“Revolutionary syndicalism serves the proletariat, whereas anarchism is one brand of humanism”

They are drawn to it by a community of interests; they gravitate towards it instinctively. Thus, to sum up, careful scrutiny of social phenomena allows us to set our faces against the fatalistic theory that proclaims the futility of effort and against the tendency to suppose that better times can spring from bad ones run riot. A history of Anarcho

The alternative is as follows: either the working class, by means of direct action, achieves its own emancipation as a class or it will be reduced forever to some form of more or less well paid slavery.

Direct Action

None of the important societies have policies other than endeavouring to keep wages from falling. The dispute lasted six months and was the first large-scale national dispute in British history. Union recognition and maintaining negotiating rights became an end in itself.

Chapter Fourteen, FRENCH SYNDICALISM

We have dealt with France and the early period in Britain, and we shall be dealing with Russia, Spain and Britain again. At its founding congress in 1905, influential members with strong anarchist or anarcho-syndicalist sympathies like , and contributed to the union's overall revolutionary syndicalist orientation. In the United States it is the same.

Chapter Fourteen, FRENCH SYNDICALISM

There was no possibility of the Russian masses' adopting the general strike at the outbreak of the war. Within the Socialist International, a severe fight occurred over the question of the general strike to prevent war. As such, they are complex social events that never conform to any master plan.

But for this burgeoning of society to become a possibility, preparatory work must first have drawn together within the existing society those elements whose role it will be to make it happen.

Syndicalism's lessons

Of these the best known is Georges Sorel, but it is a complete error to suppose that he was the originator of syndicalism, or that he has had much influence on working-class opinion.
