Another tomb is over a Chinese convert to Christianity and Protestantism, who seems to have resided here about one hundred years ago. Yet the translation has become widespread enough to be accepted and the use of the instrument to mark accented beats is universal in clapper opera styles. Although suspect as history, the myth reveals the role of shamanism in early performing arts, gateways welcoming benevolent gods into the community.

It was basking on the river bank, but was no sooner disturbed than it ran into the water, then, seeing the boats, instead of diving it began to creep up the bank again, when one of the boatmen caught it in a snickle. Gresley took a drawing of it, after which it was, by the unanimous consent of the spectators, returned in safety to the sea. Despite being a small town, Neemuch has produced a number of players who have played in the Indian soccer league.
