The History of Islamic Political Thought: From the Prophet to the Present on JSTOR

This leads into the issue of religion and politics, and this in turn to the sources of valid political argument. It should be self-evident by now that his intention was not to bring the two continents together; but to set them apart, and to do that, he felt no remorse in borrowing terms and ideas from the ideological repository of the very same people whose influence he sought to expunge from his country. The demise of Islamic Socialism and its manifestations finally created the room the more right-wing expressions of Political Islam needed to become the dominant force in the Muslim world.

Both are universal, in the sense of making claims to apply to all of humanity rather than a single race or tribe. In for instance, Ataturk himself forbade the calling of the prayer in the Arabic language.

Islam and Politics

When you come to speak about things like behavioral norms, gender relationships, or the kind of things that people will do, this is a separate issue. What other things do you think the West should and can learn from the Islamic world? One sees Islam partly because of the media, but partly because of the behavior of certain Muslim groups as a religion that is somewhat contemptuous of the.
